

Dr. Lisa Gonzales

www.WomenWhoLeadAnthology.com

Educator, Leader, Advocate, Mother "Dublin Unified School District"

Dr. Lisa Gonzales spent seven years on the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) board, originally joining as a "student member". She spent four years as State Vice President for Legislative Action, and is a founding member of the Women's Leadership Network.

Dr. Gonzalez is currently the Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services of Dublin Unified School District. She is a former Superintendent, Director of STEAM, Coordinator of Curriculum & Instruction, elementary principal, middle & high school assistant principal, Vice President of Education - Silicon Valley Education Foundation, Director of Teacher Training - NASA Ames Research Center, and middle school math/science teacher.

Dr. Gonzalez earned her Doctorate of Education (Ed.D.) in Organizational Leadership at the University of LaVerne and completed the Urban Superintendent's Program at the University of Southern California (USC) and the Executive Program for Educational Leaders at Stanford University. Dr. Gonzalez earned a Masters of Art (MA) in Educational Leadership, Bachelors of Arts (BA) in Radio/TV/Film Production, and Bachelors of Science in Business Management at San Jose State University.

She received the ACSA - 2015 Leadership Matters Legislative Award, the 2015, Region 8 Leadership Matters Award, the U.S. Department of Education/White House #FutureReadySuperintendent (one of 100 superintendents selected nationwide by President Obama's team Tech & Learning) and the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) - National Tech Leader of the Year, AASA (The School Superintendents Association) - National "Women in Leadership" Award, the CALSA (California Association of Latino Superintendents & Administrators) - Honoring Our Own Award, the City of San Jose - Champion of Arts Leadership - Administrator of the Year Award--Commendation for Public School Leadership, and was Magna Cum Laude graduate of the University of La Verne's doctoral program.