

Women Who Lead Anthology Contributing Author

Lyndosha "Dot" Jamison, Esq.

www.WomenWhoLeadAnthology.com

Attorney, Entrepreneur, Vlogger "The Jamison Law Firm"

Lyndosha Jamison is a health care attorney originally from South Carolina. Her practice focuses on advising medical professionals and small to mid-sized business entities in a variety of civil and health law matters. These matters include independent contractor agreements, medical professional employment agreements, locums business considerations, individual risk management considerations, medical board/licensing violations, hospice and behavioral health contractor agreements, and other medical transaction matters. Lyndosha's commitment is to provide practical solutions to the complex issues facing medical professionals.

Attorney Jamison received her B.A. summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa (Political Science, Pre-Law) from Spelman College in Atlanta, Georgia. She received her J.D. from John Marshall Law School in Atlanta, Georgia.

In addition, Lyndosha is also a speaker, Youtube Vlogger and Personality (Lyndosha E-Youtube). Lyndosha's personal development vlog focuses on encouraging others to live out their best lives. On her channel, she gives insight and advice on how to overcome some of the biggest challenges we all face in fighting to live a productive and successful life. Her personal motto is "You only have one life....you might as well make it your best one."

womenwholeadanthology.com